Each week, we'll take a trip back in time to explore, craft and make things to help us better understand what it was like growing up in different decades-starting with 2010's and traveling all the way back to the 1920's.

Andrew Peterson Music and Book Club: (6th-9th) $40 Class limit: 20

Teacher: Gracie Gilbert graceannegilbert@gmail.com
Accepts: cash, check, Venmo: @graciegilbert

Through his fantasy book series The Wingfeather Saga, non-fiction books, and his Christian folk music, Andrew Peterson has blessed many with his creativity and poetic thoughtfulness. There is much we can learn from his music, his books, and his life. In this class, we will read and discuss the first book of his fantasy series, The Wingfeather Saga: On the Edge of the Dark Sea of Darkness, as well as one of his non-fiction books, Adorning the Dark: Thoughts on Community, Calling, and the Mystery of Making. Additionally, we will discuss some of Peterson's music. This class is for anyone who loves the act of creating things, whether that be music, story, or art, and wants to know what we can learn from creating things and how we can bless others with the things we create. (Each student will need a copy of On the Edge of the Dark Sea of Darkness and Adorning the Dark. These can be physical copies, audiobooks, or ebooks. Library copies are also fine.)

Community Creators: (6th-9th) $40 Class limit: 25

Teacher: Gracie Gilbert graceannegilbert@gmail.com

Accepts: cash, check, Venmo: @graciegilbert

Whether you're the shyest introvert or the boldest extrovert, community is an important concept for anyone to understand. In our culture, the tendency is to isolate ourselves rather than come together. Because of this, many people long for community and belonging, but often search for it in the wrong places, such as the internet, rather than simply investing in the people who are already around them. In this class, we will try our best to learn how to create and cultivate community in a lonely world. We will discuss questions like: What is community? Why do we need it? How do we engage with different people in our community? How do we create community when it's easier to be alone? We all feel lonely at times, so let's do our best to build one another up.
